Closet Organizer Solutions For Your Home Needs

A neat and tidy home with everything organized is inviting and fills you with pleasure after you return from work. On the contrary an unorganized home, without proper closets solutions is both repelling as well as looks unpleasant. To manage a home that is clustered with clothing and other stuffs is not just time consuming but is also very tiring. An unorganized home also looks small due to cluttered living space.

There are several measures that you can implement, as a solution to the problem of unorganized home. You can pile away the unused clothes, unnecessary articles and donate it. You can also move away the cloths that are not appropriate to the weather; thereby, you free up lot of space. However, these measures allow you temporary relief, and after sometime you might find yourself surrounded with same problem. Moreover, you can pile away and manage the space only in your living space but it is not possible to manage space in other parts of home in a similar fashion. Therefore, it is best to go in for closets solutions.

It is easy to manage every part of the house with assistance from closets organizers. All you need is to call an organizer and they will take care of the rest. You have the option of directly purchasing a closet but that might not prove to be an ideal solution. The closet that you purchase from a marketplace might cost you more than getting a custom closet. There are several other benefits of getting custom closet.

Since the price of a custom closet depends upon your actual needs therefore it varies accordingly. Moreover, when you get a closet designed for your specific needs, it saves much of your space and fit in properly and looks like an inherent part of your home. These closets can also be modified for future usage thus providing you greater flexibility. To get a custom closet installed through closets organizers gives your home a new look. With all your cloths and other belongings, well organized in the closet, you will feel as if you have moved in a bigger house.

The closets organizers providing closets solutions have expert designers who can understand your needs and design a closet accordingly. They also take into account any changes that you suggest and make the final product that can fulfill your requirements. Once, the product is ready, you can get it installed at a time which you find fit. Of course, if you don't have time or patience to create a closet, there are many local companies that can build a closet to your exact specifications. Some closet companies such as The Closet Factory in Deerfield and Accent Closets in Pompano, are known for their high quality construction and skilled craftsmen.

Form Follows Function in a Sophisticated Oceanfront Condo

INTERIOR DESIGN Nickie Siegel
NLS Creations, Inc., 1113 Highland Beach Drive,
Highland Beach, FL
(561) 274-2032

PHOTOGRAPHY Joe Lapeyra, FL
TEXT Elizabeth Nieves, Allied ASID

Nickie Siegel, Owner of NSL Design Creations, Inc. takes her time interviewing her clients not only for aesthetic purposes or individual likes and dislikes, but to really pin point exactly how a space is to be used. Questions asked include not only what a room is going to be used for, but in what manner each particular person involved is going to use it. That philosophy is the starting point to this Contemporary condo with a timeless appeal that makes it a tribute to her design philosophy of form following function.

The view was very important to these Northeast snowbirds, who wanted nothing to take away from the fabulous ocean vista seen from their space. Keeping that in mind, Ms. Siegel pulled out all the stops to ensure that the client was able to get what they wanted, and so much more. Starting from the top, which in condos can be tricky, she created a coffered ceiling in order to place recessed light fixtures. This achieved not only a great design aesthetic in the main living area and great room, but allowed enough light in the space without the interference of hanging fixtures or bulky lamps.

The great room consists of three separate seating areas and the space was re-configured from its original layout to once again maximize the ocean view. Two sofas are balanced symmetrically on either side of a Wendell Castle coffee table. Sconces flanking each side of the window are strictly for ambiance and add a little kick of drama with their height. An area rug by Stark picks up all the colors found in the ocean in cool blues, jade and purples blending one into the other, and these colors are continued with the throw pillows. A Lucite bench completes the look with the added benefit of keeping the scenery open.

The dining area incorporated rich, dark woods balanced by lighter sands and creams. The square table by Ekena seats eight and is topped with goat skin, the same materials on the buffet. Added elegance and interest are achieved by the seating around the table, with four chairs opposite each other on two sides, and two benches on the others, all done in a cream color embossed suede. A mirror above the buffet intentionally reflects back the amazing view, and artworks featuring his favorite car, a Bugatti, complete this space.

Not wanting to replace the entire kitchen (upper right) as well as keeping the original footprint, Nickie gave it what she calls a "facelift". The kitchen was updated with new marble countertops, new plumbing fixtures and a stainless steel backsplash with a Chiclet pattern. In addition, the upper cabinetry doors were opened up with reeded glass and new hardware was added. The pendant lighting coordinates with a matching cluster across the room (not seen in photo). Dark grey stools and stainless appliances pick up the greys in the marble and complement the back-splash. The floors are the same Saturna Marble that was also original to the unit and continues throughout the entire unit, excluding the bedrooms which have carpeting.

In the Master bedroom more of the dark wood is utilized, but is kept light and airy by the cool pale aqua of the carefully selected and artfully combined patterns in the fabrics and finishes. Per Siegel, There is a fine balance of mixing patterns. Mixing plaid with stripes & paisley as she did here for instance, was accomplished by only using one of each pattern, never more, and keeping the colors the same. The chair is from Donghia and boasts the paisley, custom bedspread in stripes and the plaid in the carpeting by stark. More lightness is achieved by the floating wall unit below the television and the Silhouette Window treatments by Hunter Douglas.

Typical of many clients that have a three bedroom vacation home, this couple immediately thought “beds in every room. “ However, that was not what they ended up with. Knowing the spare rooms would only be used by visiting grandchildren once a year, a more thought out plan of action was taken. In one of these “guestrooms” a home office was created. Rich dark wood was used here in the custom designed cabinetry, and wall and television unit combination. The shelves hold all of his collectables and display them beautifully. A not only beautiful but very functional office chair from Carriage House adjusts in every direction for a comfortable sit. Across from this is a Murphy bed hidden in the same wood, custom built and out of sight. Woven wood blinds and sisal carpet add layers of texture finishing off the space handsomely.

An interesting and dramatic juxtaposition of textures combined in the Powder room creating an elegant and sophisticated space. Because of the lack of hanging fixtures in the main areas, this was the perfect setting to do something a bit different. The light fixture with its woven metal mesh shade pops against the gun metal textured and three dimensional wall paper which reflects the light. Contrasting elements perfectly balance these exquisite materials as achieved by the smooth clear glass with chrome sink. More clear glass accessories atop the sink add to the illusion of all the elements floating above the floor. Asymmetrical balance was created by placing the mirror on one side the light fixture on the other. A fun pop of color is achieved with the red flowers. The finishing touch to the space and not seen in the photos are pen & ink drawings of nudes.

The clients were extremely pleased with the way all the components came together to fashion this elegant contemporary space, which is the opposite of the traditional furnishings of their northern home. They were very involved in the selection process and accompanied Ms. Siegel joyfully on her shopping expeditions. By allowing the function of the space to lead the design, a perfectly balanced and well-appointed space was not only shaped for its use, but for the aesthetic as well. - END -

Every item we make is created by our highly skilled craftsmen. We pay close attention to detail and our customers' exact specifications. The result is not just fine cabinetry and furniture, but works of art.
